

BORDER COUNTY NOTES.

Friday, May 8, 1903.

CARROLL.

The Norborne Democrat has inaugurated a piano contest.

Mrs. J. E. Knappenberger of DeWitt died suddenly Thursday afternoon.

The Tina Cornet band will give Saturday afternoon concerts this season.

Mrs. T. Lucas of Combs township died Wednesday. She was past 3 score and 10.

Claude Huffman's house in Carrollton was slightly damaged by fire Tuesday morning.

The Tina public school turned out six graduates this spring—four young ladies and two young men.

The Carrollton Democrat is making life a burden for the new courthouse contractors because of their delay in executing the work.

A new camp of the Modern Woodmen of America was instituted at Miami Station Saturday night by the M. W. A. team at DeWitt.

A young man from DeWitt took on an over-supply of "bug-juice" at Carrollton Thursday night, for which he was arrested and fined $1 and costs.

The funds of Carroll county have been re-let to the First National bank of Carrollton for the coming two years for one per cent on daily balances.

Katie Mobly, the 10-year-old daughter of Chas. Mobly of near Gilead church, died in Carrollton at the residence of J. D. Tatum whither she had been taken for treatment.

Quido Betzler of Carrollton cashed a $5 check for a man who gave his name as Chas. Miller. The check was signed by M. Meirs & Son and was on Wilcoxson & Co.'s bank. It turned out to be a forgery, but not until after Miller had left for parts unknown.

The Cole Younger and Frank James Wild West show was an attraction at Carrollton last week. Its chief features were cowboys, Indians, soldiers, ponies, wagons, brass bands and the two noted ex-bandits, Cole Younger and Frank James.

Hulda, the 16-year-old daughter of John Cochran of near Carrollton, left home unceremoniously last week, but was shortly afterwards located at Burlington, Iowa, by Sheriff Cruzen of Carroll county, and who had her taken in custody by the authorities at Burlington until he could come or send after her. Her father thinks she ran away to marry a widower, who disappeared about the same time, but he did not go with the girl.

MARRIAGES.

Chas. Young and Miss Rosa Lightfoot, both of Carroll county.

Jas. Washington and Miss Topsey Clark, both of Carrollton.

Torrence C. Crace and Miss Margurite Ord, both of Bosworth.

HOWARD.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilkinson of Glasgow died Monday of brain fever.

Murray Hendrix Davis of Fayette and Miss Nelle McCarty of Houston, Tex., are to be married Thursday, May 21.

The Central college baseball boys of Fayette defeated the Westminster college team of Fulton Monday by a score of 9 to 5.

Harry P. Mason is now sole proprietor of the Fayette Democrat-Leader having purchased the interest of his partner, D. J. Biggs.

A temple of Rathbone sisters, a female contingent of the Knights of Pythias, has been organized at Glasgow with 24 charter members.

A movement is on foot at Glasgow to utilize the waters of the Missouri river in conveying people to St. Louis to the world's fair by houseboat.

Prof. Levi Markland of New Franklin has been appointed by the state board of education as a member of the Howard county board of education for a term of two years.

W. W. Slagle's residence on his farm, near Fayette, was consumed by fire a few days ago, but the greater portion of the contents was saved. The house was insured for $1,000.

Prof. C. A. Greene of near Trip-lett, who has been superintendent of the public schools at Armstrong for the past two years, has accepted a like position at Bethany, Mo., for the ensuing term.

A lodge of the Woodmen of the World was instituted at Armstrong Wednesday night with 26 charter members and a camp of the Modern Woodmen of America at Burton Thursday night.

Clifton E. Denny, a prominent and influential citizen of Howard county, died at Oklahoma City, Okla., Tuesday from the effects of a surgical operation. His remains were shipped to Armstrong for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hurt of St. Louis mourn the death of their 4-year-old son, which occurred Tuesday morning. The remains were sent to Fayette for interment, where the parents of the little one formerly resided.

J. H. Denny of Glasgow, prosecuting attorney of Howard county, has purchased the fine, well-improved farm of 114 acres in the immediate vicinity of Glasgow, and belonging to Geo. B. Harrison, Jr., of Kansas City, for 14,000.

W. N. Wicks, the efficient Wabash agent at Glasgow, is having a 20-horse power naphtha launch built at Racine, Wis., which he will have brought to Glasgow for the use of pleasure parties and freight traffic on the Missouri and Chariton rivers.

Dr. J. C. Morris of St. Louis has been elected by the board of curators as president of Central college at Fayette. Dr. Morris was pastor of Cook Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, South, in St. Louis at the time of his election as president of Central college.

Tom Allen of Armstrong was badly burned Saturday morning about the face and one hand, and his eyebrows, mustache and the hair on top and the sides of his head were singed off by an explosion of gas which had accumulated in a hot blast stove, in which had smothered the fire down.

Chas. Jenkins, col., of Glasgow has employed Attorney Percival Birch of that city to bring suit against the C. & A. railway for killing plaintiff's son, Vaughan, near Essig's mill, in Glasgow sometime ago. Jenkins charges that the train which killed his son was running at a higher rate of speed than is permitted by the city ordinances of Glasgow.

MARRIAGES.

Dr. J. B. Scott and Miss Eva R. Tremér, both of Fayette.

C. W. Cabbage and Miss Flora Renne, both of Glasgow.

Chas. Miller and Miss Allie Thomas, both of near Richland church.

R-I-P-A-N-S Tabules

Doctors find

A good prescription

For mankind

The 3-cent packet is enough for usual occasions. The family bottle (50 cents) contains a supply for a year. All druggists sell them.

LINN.

Brookfield is organizing a lodge of Elks.

A creamery is being located at Winigan.

Marceline is preparing to hold a street fair this fall.

Ed Owens died at his home, east of Purdin, Wednesday.

The postoffice at Sedgwick will be discontinued May 15.

Hayes Hind's residence, east of Browning, burned Friday.

Mrs. Mary Johnson died, near Benson, Monday, aged 75 years.

Mrs. W. D. Hill died at her home, near Sedgwick, Wednesday.

The 13-year-old son of Frank Herring died at Browning Sunday.

Mrs. Rebecca A. McDaniel died Thursday in Brookfield, aged 53 years.

Grandma Hill of near Sedgwick died Saturday at an advanced age.

Eugene Corey, residing north of Linneus, died Wednesday, aged 45 years.

Wolves are killing many sheep and lambs for the farmers in the vicinity of Winigan.

Mrs. Mary Cantwell Cowels died at her home, near Bucklin, Friday, aged 23 years.

Mrs. Callaway Couch died at her home, west of Linneus, Wednesday, aged 75 years.

Measles are an epidemic in Linn county, several deaths having resulted therefrom.

Riley Brown's residence, near Oak Dale, was entered by burglars Saturday, and a gold watch stolen.

M. M. Crandall, at one time prosecuting attorney of Linn county, died at El Paso, Tex., Monday, aged 45 years.

R. R. Smith of Brookfield was endorsed at the state camp of Modern Woodmen, held at Jackson, Mo., last week as a member of the board of directors of that order.

Mr. Masterson, a Marceline saloonkeeper, through his attorney, W. B. Clark, is suing the city of Brookfield for damages received from a fall on a defective sidewalk.

Ned Barnes of Marceline, who represented Missouri at the national oratorical contest at Cleveland, O., Friday, won fourth place, Wisconsin, Michigan and Kansas coming first.

Frank Carroll and Jim Coon of Chillicothe attempted to rob the baggage car of the east-end "Dude" at Brookfield Wednesday. They are now in jail at Linneus awaiting trial on the charge of burglary.

The Linneus Bulletin says that the proposed electric railway is sure to be built as far as Brookfield, practically all the right-of-way having been secured. This road will pass through Keytesville. Boston capitalists have agreed to finance the road at $4,500,000.

MARRIAGES.

Elmer Brewer and Miss Gussie L. Leeget, both of Brookfield.

W. F. Wilson and Miss Lizzie Keithley, both of near Linneus.

LIVINGSTON.

Miss Mary Hughes, aged 18 years, of Springhill died Saturday of consumption.

The cigarmakers of Chillicothe have organized themselves into a union, of which Frank Willard was chosen president.

C. L. Watson of Erockfield has purchased the Cooper hotel in Chillicothe of Gram Cooper and has taken possession of the hostelry.

"Aunt" Hannah Gilbert, col., of Chillicothe is dead. She was among the early settlers of Livingston county and was about 95 years old at the time of her death.

Mrs. Levi L. Wolf of Utica was taken before the county court last week, adjudged insane and ordered conveyed to the hospital for the insane at St. Joseph.

Arthur Smith of Ludlow pleaded guilty before Justice Willard of Chillicothe to the charge of "slapping" Henry Sutton, also of Ludlow, and was fined $1 and costs. Smith had a fight with Sutton and the latter's son.

I. H. Hulderman of Chillicothe died at the Mendel hospital in Chicago Monday from the effects of an operation for cancer of the mouth. Mr. Hulderman was 54 years of age and had lived in Chillicothe for 26 years. A wife and several stepchildren survive him.

A Mrs. Mitchell of Chillicothe, her brother, John Colvin Hayden, and her son, Roy, were made seriously ill Friday night by drinking poisoned milk from Mrs. Mitchell's own cow, which ate some sort of a poisonous weed, but it is not known when or where.

P. H. Minor of near Chillicothe, a resident of Livingston county for 50 years, and the first breeder of Shorthorn cattle in North Missouri, has crossed the dark river at the age of 76 years. Mr. Minor was the father of 12 children, all of whom are living.

A 4-year-old son of John H. Lowe of four miles north of Chillicothe was knocked down, gored and trampled by a vicious cow Sunday, she having recently given birth to a calf. The boy had a gash five inches long cut in his scalp and his right leg was badly bruised. He would have undoubtedly been killed had not other members of the family rushed to his rescue.

In the city election—at Chillicothe Tuesday the Republicans elected Dr. W. W. Edgerton, mayor, by 315; Paul D. Kitt, city attorney, by 331; A. H. Huggett, treasurer, by 157, and three members of the city council. The Democrats elected Edwin C. Orr, clerk and recorder; Maurice Dorney, constable; J. H. H. Matson, assessor, and two members of the city council.

MARRIAGES.

Carl Woolf of St. Joseph and Miss Mary Duffield of Haseville.

John S. Wingfield of St. Joseph and Miss Sallie Hicklin of Chillicothe.

John H. Dusenberry of Ludlow and Miss Mabel L. Stringer of Humphreys.

MACON.

Macon is enjoying a resid nee building boom.

Mrs. Ed Doolen died in New Cambria Monday.

Grandma Souther died, near White Oak Sunday, aged 94 years.

Blackleg is causing the loss of a number of cattle in Macon county.

Macon is making extensive improvements in the way of paving streets and alleys.

The Macon schools close June 5. There will be 16 members of the graduating class.

The Bles Military academy baseball team of Macon defeated Mexico by a score of 12 to 1.

Daniel Bunce died at Eldorado Springs Saturday, aged 74 years. He was buried at the Bunce cemetery in Walnut township.

The Historical Wild West show of Cole Younger and Frank James showed at LaPlata Wednesday. A patron, a young man from the country, told Younger he had been short-changed out of $5 by a fellow selling tickets for the concert. Younger hunted up the thief, made him disgorge and then fired him.

W. D. Roberts of New Cambria has in his possession one of the oldest Bibles in the state of Missouri if not in the United States. It has been handed down from generation to generation on his mother's side. It was printed in 1588 and has wooden covers, covered with thin leather, that are hinged together with rawhide strings. The book shows no decay, notwithstanding its 315 years of age.

A wild animal, presumably a panther, is terrorizing the people of Prairie school district, north of Bevier. While sheep, calves and dogs were its only victims it was not taken seriously, but recently it attacked a Mr. Mullinix while he was out horseback riding by leaping upon him from the roadside and fastening its claws in his breast and arms. He related his experience to friends when he got to town and showed his torn coat. An organized effort will soon be made to get rid of this unwelcome beast.

MARRIAGES.

T. J. Vogel and Miss Mattie Malone, both of Bevier.

Ed Dorrell of Marceline and Miss Elsie Ray of Keota.

W. A. Morris and Miss Birtie L. Carter, both of Tullvania.

Wm. Blankenship and Miss Prudy Doggett, both of Bevier.

J. H. Atterbury of LaPlata and Miss Elizabeth Miller of Spaulding, O.

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. Wm. White died at her home, near Clark, Saturday.

Dr. Thos. Cottingham of Clark died Saturday, aged 26 years.

Mrs. Susan C. Bull died Thursday in Huntsville, aged 81 years.

Mrs. Laura Moss, aged 45 years, died in Moberly Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Beard died at her home, near Moberly, Thursday.

Mrs. Geo. W. Crutchfield died in Huntsville Monday, aged 49 years.

Mrs. Mary E. Harris, aged 59, died at her home, east of Moberly, Saturday.

W. R. McDaniels died Thursday at his home, three miles south of Moberly.

Robberies are of frequent occurrence in Moberly, two occurring Thursday night.

John Wilkinson, who was killed in a mine at Sumpter, Ore., was buried at Higbee Saturday.

The Moberly city authorities gave a band of disreputable gypsies a few hours in which to leave the Magic city.

Mrs. Mary Rutherford died, near Mt. Airy, Wednesday, aged 81 years. She was one of the pioneers of that section.

John Wright, col., was arrested at Jacksonville on a charge of assault with intent to kill Frank Ansell Wednesday by stabbing him.

The Moberly machine shop of Jas. Brooks has turned out a gasoline engine, all of the work being done in that city and by home workmen.

The Wabash section men have been granted an increase of wages. The men in the Moberly yards now receive $1.45 a day, while those out on the road get $1.40.

J. E. Briggs, engineer on No. 2, was painfully hurt by some miscreant who threw a stone through the cab window, striking Mr. Briggs in the face and knocking him off the seat-box.

Sank Johnson, col., who has been an inmate of the Randolph county poorfarm for several months, on account of a sore foot, had his leg amputated between the ankle and knee Friday. The operation was performed by Drs. Terrill and Barnhart, assisted by Dr. Adams.

MARRIAGES.

Noah T. Couch and Mrs. Grace Jennings, both of Moberly.

W. J. Meffett and Miss Stella Toalson, both of Huntsville.

Robt. Braun of Richmond and Miss Ollie Tucker of Higbee.

Martin Shea and Miss Margaret Jarvis, both of Moberly.

Claude Malone and Miss Bridget Sleas, both of Moberly.

Ambrose Dale and Miss Annie Mitchell, both of Randolph county.

John W. Alexander and Miss Ledrue Allen, both of Huntsville vicinity.

SALINE.

Dan'l Crawford died at his home in Marshall Monday.

Marshall gets the next state camp meeting of the M. W. A.

Mrs. D. Rogers of Marshall died Wednesday, aged 40 years.

Scarlet fever, in a very malignant form, is prevalent at Slater.

The 11-year-old son of John Skinner of New Frankfort died Monday.

Good horses and mules in Saline county bring from $100 $200 a head.

Rudolph Shellenburg, one of the oldest citizens of New Frankfort, died Thursday.

Gen. Burch, an old resident of Western Saline, died at Blackburn Saturday of heart trouble.

The Slater high school, baseball team defeated the Marshall high school team by a score of 8 to 3.

Rev. J. P. Hicks has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Slater.

Some thief relieved Dr. A. C. Donohue, a veterinary surgeon at Slater, of a $50 watch and chain Monday.

Two of W. S. Guerant's children died, near Slater, Sunday of scarlet fever, aged 13 and 21-2 years, respectively.

A 61-2-foot vein of coal was struck Friday on the farm of Dud Thompson, six miles south of Marshall, at a depth of 75 feet.

Dr. Leach of Marshall removed one of Chas. Cooney's eyes, which was injured while in the employ of the C. & A. railroad at Higginsville.

MARRIAGES.

H. A. Thomas and Miss Julia Redman of Marshall.

A. Phelps and Miss Edna Elmore, both of Slater.

Geo. Avitt and Miss Louise Vaughn, both of Slater.

S. S. Sharritts and Miss Nettie Truesdale, both of Slater.

O. H. Davis and Miss Emma E. Hayes, both of Little Rock.

Jas. D. Hill and Miss Susan Parkhurst, both of Sweet Springs.

If You Could Get Money

as easily as we can get it for you, you wouldn't need our services.

But if you can't, you'll find us ready with almost any amount you want.

Our reputation among the farmers of Chariton county is A 1.

Our transactions are always straightforward and free from any trace of chicanery.

Your interests are safe here whether you are a borrower or a buyer or seller of property.

We've made conveyancing and the corrections of titles a life study. Charges nominal. Office right in the courthouse.

MINTER & CRAWLEY, MAKERS OF FARM LOANS AND CONVEYANCERS.
KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI